Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam-

First Semester MGU-UGP – BSW (Honours) Regular Examination November 2025

Discipline Specific Core Course (DSC) MG1DSCSWK100 PROFESSIONAL SOCIAL WORK - QP CODE: 25900956-

Duration: 1 Hour 30 minutes Maximum Marks: 50

. Part A Short Answer Questions Answer any 5 Questions Each Question carries 2 marks

1	Mention two characteristics of voluntary service. a. It is performed without any expectation of monetary reward. b. It is motivated by personal commitment to helping others and serving the community.	[U] / [CO1 2 marks
2	. Define social development. Social development is a process of improving the well-being of individuals and communities by enhancing social, economic, political, and cultural conditions to ensure equality, justice, and a better quality of life.	[K] / [CO2] 2 marks
3	What was the mission of Poykayil Appachan? Poykayil Appachan's mission was to liberate Dalits from caste-based oppression, promote self-respect, and create an independent spiritual–social space for Dalits through the Prathyaksha Raksha Daiva Sabha (PRDS).	U] / [CO6] 2 marks
4	Mention two functions of social welfare administration a. Planning and implementing welfare programmes for individuals and communities. b. Coordinating and supervising welfare agencies to ensure effective service delivery.	[K] / [CO2] 2 marks
5	Name one reform movement led by Vinoba Bhave Bhoodan Movement (Land-gift movement).	[K] / [CO4] 2 marks
6	State one importance of non-verbal communication Non-verbal communication helps convey emotions and attitudes more effectively than words, improving understanding in interactions.	[K] / [CO7 2 marks
7	Mention any two components of social security a. Old-age pension b. Unemployment benefits	[K] / [CO2] 2 marks

Part B Short Essay Questions Answer any 4 Questions Each Question carries 5 marks

8	Discuss the contribution of religious institutions to Kerala's social welfare. a. Education: Missionaries and temple/mosque-managed institutions established schools and colleges that improved literacy across communities. b. Healthcare: Churches, temples, and Islamic organizations set up hospitals, dispensaries, and palliative care centres. c. Charity & Relief: Religious bodies provide food, clothing, and shelter during crises, disasters, and for the poor. d. Social Reform: Institutions supported campaigns against caste discrimination, untouchability, and harmful customs. e. Community Development: They promote vocational training, self-help groups, and community welfare programmes.	[A] / [CO6 5 marks
9	Discuss the contributions of Raja Ram Mohan Roy to social reform a. Abolition of Sati: His activism led to the regulation and final abolition of Sati in 1829. b. Women's Rights: Advocated for widow remarriage, female education, and property rights for women. c. Religious Reform: Founded the Brahmo Samaj, promoting monotheism, rationality, and opposition to superstition. d. Social Justice: Fought against caste discrimination and social inequality. e. Modern Education: Encouraged English education, science, and modern learning in India.	[A] / [CO2] 5 marks
10	Discuss the concept of constructive work in Gandhian thought a. Community Self-reliance: Encourages local production (khadi, village industries) to reduce dependence on outside forces. b. Social Equality: Promotes removal of untouchability and upliftment of marginalized groups. c. Moral Development: Focuses on character building, truth, non-violence, and ethical living. d. Health & Sanitation: Stress on cleanliness, hygiene, and community health programmes. e. Education for Service: Nai Talim model emphasises learning through productive work and service.	] [U] / [CO4 5 marks
11	Discuss emerging thrust areas in social work. a. Mental Health & Well-being:ng focus on counselling, suicide prevention, and psychosocial interventions. b. Digital Social Work: Using technology for service delivery, case management, and advocacy. c. Climate Action & Disaster Management: Addressing climate impacts, resilience building, and disaster response. d. Gender & LGBTQ+ Rights: Supporting gender equality, inclusion, and rights-based interventions.	U] / [CO3 5 marks

	e. Elderly & Palliative Care: Expanding services for ageing populations and chronic illness care.
12	Explain the importance of methodical practice in social work. a. Ensures Professionalism: A structured approach improves credibility and ethical practice. b. Improves Efficiency: Planned assessment and intervention use resources effectively. c. Enhances Client Outcomes: d. Promotes Accountability: Documentation and evaluation strengthen transparency. e. Supports Evidence-based Practice: Methodical work integrates research and proven techniques.	[A] / [CO5] 5 marks
13	Analyze the importance of international collaboration through IFSW. a. Global Standards: IFSW sets international guidelines for ethics and practice. b. Knowledge Exchange: Facilitates sharing of best practices and research across countries. c. Advocacy: Supports global social justice causes like human rights, poverty reduction, and equality. d. Capacity Building: Provides training, conferences, and professional development. e. Strengthens Solidarity: Builds a global network of social workers addressing cross-border issues.	[An] / [CO5 5 marks
14	Explain the impact of industrialization on social work development a. Urban Problems: Industrialization created poverty, slums, child labour, and unemployment—leading to the need for social work. b. Labour Welfare: Birthed labour laws, welfare programmes, and industrial social work. c. Professionalization: Social work emerged as a formal profession to address social problems caused by rapid industrial change. d. Community Services: Development of settlement houses, community organization, and charity organizations. e. Shift to Social Justice: Highlighted inequality and pushed social work towards rights-based and reform-oriented practice.	[A] / [CO4] 5 marks

Part C Essay Questions Answer any 2 Questions Each Question carries 10 marks

15	Examine how social work fulfills both preventive and developmental functions a. Early identification of problems through assessments helps prevent crises. b. Public education and awareness programmes reduce risk behaviours and promote healthy lifestyles. c. Strengthening families through counselling prevents breakdown and protects vulnerable members. d. Community development activities reduce poverty, inequality, and social marginalization. e. Policy advocacy promotes laws that prevent abuse, exploitation, and discrimination. f. Skill development and empowerment initiatives help individuals move towards self-reliance. g. Preventive healthcare and mental health services reduce long-term social and economic costs. h. Child protection and school-based programmes prevent delinquency, dropout, and abuse. i. Livelihood and social security interventions protect people from economic vulnerability. j. Capacity-building of communities fosters sustainable development and resilience.	[An] / [CO1 10 marks
16	Examine the evolution of organized charity and social welfare under the Elizabethan Poor Laws. a. Pre-Elizabethan charity was primarily church-based, unorganized, and inconsistent. b. The Elizabethan Poor Law (1601) marked the first state-regulated system of social welfare. c. It categorized the poor into deserving (unable to work) and undeserving (able to work). d. Parish-based administration made local authorities responsible for relief distribution. e. Introduced poor rate (local tax) to fund welfare support. f. Workhouses and apprenticeship programmes were created to rehabilitate able-bodied poor. g. Outdoor relief offered food, money, or materials to needy families. h. The law laid the foundation for state involvement in welfare, replacing charity-only models. i. It established accountability and record-keeping in welfare administration. j. It influenced later welfare legislation in Britain and globally, shaping modern social security systems.	[An] / [CO4] 10 marks
17	Evaluate the ethical dilemmas faced in performing social work functions. a. Client confidentiality vs. duty to warn when clients pose risk to others. b. Client autonomy vs. beneficence, especially when clients make harmful choices. c. Dual relationships that can threaten professional boundaries. d. Resource allocation dilemmas when services are limited but needs are high. e. Cultural sensitivity vs. universal human rights standards in diverse contexts. f. Involuntary interventions (e.g., child protection, psychiatric referrals) challenge client rights. g. Truth-telling vs. protecting client emotions during sensitive discussions. h. Conflicts of interest when organizational goals differ from client best interests. i. Advocacy vs. neutrality when social workers must take a stand on social issues. j. Use of technology and digital data raises privacy and surveillance concerns.	E] / [CO4] 10 marks
18	Critically evaluate the role of social action in promoting human rights. a. Challenges oppressive structures by mobilizing communities to assert their rights. b. Raises public awareness of injustice through protests, campaigns, and media advocacy. c. Influences policy and law reform, ensuring rights are protected in legal frameworks.	[E] / [CO5]

	d. Empowers marginalized groups to participate in decision-making. e. Creates collective pressure that compels institutions to change discriminatory practices. f. Acts as a watchdog, monitoring human rights violations and demanding accountability. g. Strengthens civil society by building networks of activists, NGOs, and rights groups. h. Promotes participatory democracy by encouraging citizen engagement. i. Faces resistance from power structures, highlighting the need for strategic planning. j. Ensures long-term social transformation by shifting public attitudes and promoting justice.	10 marks