15. The story of the 10 lepers (Luke 17:11-19) showcases Jesus' compassion and power.

Compassion; Jesus shows mercy to the marginalized lepers, healing them despite their social exclusion.

He responds to their plea for mercy, demonstrating God's love for the suffering.

Power; Jesus heals all 10 lepers with a single command, "Go show yourselves to the priests."

The healing is instant, highlighting Jesus' divine authority over disease and suffering.

Only one leper returns to thank Jesus, highlighting the importance of gratitude and faith.

16. Story of David and Goliath:

The Philistines gathered their armies to fight Israel, and a giant warrior named Goliath challenged the Israelites to a one-on-one battle. For 40 days, Goliath taunted the Israelites, but no one dared to fight him. David, a young shepherd, arrived at the battlefield with food for his brothers and accepted the challenge. Armed with a sling and stones, David faced Goliath, trusting in God's power-
