MGU UGP(HONOURS) REGULAR EXAM – MARCH 2026

FOURTH SEMESTER

MG4DSEPHL200- APPLIED ETHICS

ANSWER KEY

PART A

1. A. Based on moral principles and values
   b. Emphasises honesty, fairness and respect for others
2. Ethical guidelines for journalists to avoid bias, plagiarism etc
3. Treating people fairly and giving each one their due.
4. Assisted Reproductive Technology
5. Placing human beings at the centre of moral concern.
6. Termination of pregnancy through medical procedures
7. Refers to moral behaviour in the digital space
8. Process of choosing actions in business based on moral principles
9. Casuistry or case based reasoning
10. Process of ending a persons life to relieve suffering
11. Bioethics, media ethics, business ethics, environmental ethics, medical ethics
12. Ransomware, spyware, worms, trojans, botnets etc

Part B

13. A.Business ethics alters peoples values
    b. Ethics is relative
    c. It is the prerogative of philosophers
    d. It is similar to CSR.

14. Verification of facts to avoid spread of misinformation.

    News should not be biased.

    Accuracy builds public trust.

15. It covers medical ethics.
    Addresses issues like abortion, surrogacy, euthanasia, organ transplantation
    Also deals with animal ethics.
16. Normative ethics deals with general moral standards or what ought to be done.It is theoretical Applied ethics deals with specific issues. It is practical

17. Promotes instant communication and information sharing. Influences public opinion in a faster pace. Raises ethical issues like privacy, accountability, cyber bullying etc.
18. Individual level: moral values and decision making in employees
    Organisational level: company policies, CSR, corporate culture.
19. Anthropocentrism: humans as central, human focused
    Ecocentrism: Entire ecosystem as central, nature focused.
20. Starts from specific cases to general principles
    Focuses on existing social practices and agreements
    Eg: casuistry, pragmatism
21. Rape, danger to mothers life
22. CSR is broader- integrated into ethical business practices
    Charity is giving money, an ad hoc practice

Part C

23 Corporate governance provides rules and structure for decision making. Business ethics ensures ethical business conduct and behaviour. Good governance is necessary to build trust among its stakeholders. Together they promote the goodwill of the company

24 Deep ecology emphasises the intrinsic value of nature. Challenges anthropocentrism and promotes ecological balance. Considers humans as part of nature.

25 Moral principles guiding media professionals. Ensures truthfulness, fairness and privacy in reporting. Maintains credibility and accountability. Provides accurate information.

26 Surrogacy (Regulation) Act 2021 allows only altruistic surrogacy. Informed consent of the surrogate is important. Prevents exploitation of the surrogate in any form. Social impact: A solace to childless parents. Prevents illegal child trafficking.