ANSWER KEY
QP CODE: 25901456

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAR EXAMINATION March 2026
FOURTH SEMESTER
Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) - MG4DSEPOL200, MG4DSEPJM200 - PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

PART A

1. New Public Administration

2. Elton Mayo

3. Statutory/Regulatory Agency

4. Appropriation Bill

5. Unity of Command

6. 1943

7. William G. Torpey

8. Comptroller and Auditor General of India

9. Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (MGNREGA)/Viksit Bharat-Guarantee for Rozgar and Ajeevika Mission (Gramin)/VB-G RAM G

10.Territorial/Geographical Principle of Organization

PART B

11.Selection based on merit, competence–recruitment through competitive examinations–professional qualifications- emphasis–neutral, politically impartial civil service–administrative efficiency accountability–equal opportunity in recruitment–elimination of patronage nepotism–professional expertise policy implementation capacity–technical knowledge specialization–career based bureaucracy promotion training–institutional stability continuity–importance for democratic governance–transparent accountable administration–public trust legitimacy.

12.Frederick Taylor-scientific management theory–division of supervisory functions–concept of functional foremanship–multiple specialized supervisors–planning foreman instruction card clerk–time and cost clerk roles–shop floor supervision specialization–efficiency in industrial operations–separation of planning execution–standardization of work procedures–improving productivity performance–scientific work management methods.

13.Fred W. Riggs- administrative theory–prismatic society- transitional stage–between traditional fused system–modern differentiated system–Sala administrative structure–formal legal institutions present–overlapping roles, norms–formalism gap between rules practice–heterogeneity, diversity in social structure–mixed traditional modern values–administrative inefficiency corruption tendencies–limited specialization professionalism–environmental influence on administration–developing society characteristics.

14.Often referred as diversity or cultural awareness training- crucial tool in nurturing an inclusive and respectful workplace- focuses on educating employees about cultural differences, unconscious biases, and the impact of their actions and words on others- group interaction learning process–focus on interpersonal relations awareness–self-understanding, emotional insight–small group discussion sessions–unstructured learning environment–participants observe behaviour reactions–feedback from group members–improving communication leadership skills–organizational development method–changing attitudes perceptions behaviour–human relations improvement.

15.Advancement of employee position–movement to higher rank–increase in responsibilities authority–improvement in status–reward for efficiency performance–recognition of merit service–career development motivation–encouraging employee productivity–promotion based on seniority–promotion based on merit–organizational staffing policy–improving administrative efficiency–employee morale job satisfaction.

16.New Public Administration movement 1968–Minnowbrook conference influence–critique of value neutral administration–focus on normative values–social equity central administrative goal–reducing inequality injustice–public services for disadvantaged groups–responsive responsible governance–citizen participation inclusiveness–democratic administrative processes–policy implementation addressing social problems–administration as instrument of change.

17.Woodrow Wilson- politics-administration dichotomy–separation of policy and execution–administration as neutral instrument–politics setting policy goals–modern governance-complex policy processes–administrators involved in policymaking–bureaucratic expertise advisory roles–political oversight administrative discretion–collaborative governance networks–public private partnerships–blurred boundaries between politics administration–limited validity today.

18.Government initiative for urban transformation–Smart Cities Mission India–use of digital technologies governance–e governance platforms services–data driven decision making–integrated urban management systems–smart infrastructure transport energy water–efficient service delivery–citizen participation feedback mechanisms–transparent accountable governance–urban sustainability innovation–improving quality of life.

19.Public choice theory- applying economics–rational choice behaviour analysis–individual self-interest motivation–public officials as rational actors–critique of bureaucratic expansion-inefficiency–government failure concerns–market mechanisms competition–privatization contracting out–improving efficiency resource allocation–cost benefit analysis decisions–accountability through incentives choice–reducing administrative waste.

20.Christopher Hood- 1991–managerialism in public sector–professional management autonomy–performance measurement standards output oriented administration–results-based evaluation–disaggregation of public organizations–decentralized management, units competition in service delivery–quasi markets privatization–cost efficiency financial discipline–customer oriented public services–flexibility innovation managerial accountability.

PART C

21.Implementation of public policies–instrument of government action–administrative machinery for change–promotion of socio economic development–poverty alleviation welfare programmes–delivery of public services–education health sanitation infrastructure–administrative planning coordination–development programmes implementation–empowerment of marginalized communities–inclusive governance initiatives–institutional reforms modernization–capacity building innovation–local governance decentralization–participatory development planning–improving quality of life–sustainable development outcomes.

22.Public administration-public interest orientation–serving collective welfare–government authority backing–wide scope of functions–policy formulation implementation–regulation public services–accountability to legislature public–transparency democratic control–objectives social welfare development–public good focus–private administration profit motive–business organizational goals–decision making managerial autonomy–market competition influence–flexibility efficiency in operations–less political accountability–difference in objectives accountability scope methods–public welfare versus profit orientation.

23.Administrative leadership of government–head of executive branch–policy direction guidance–decision making authority–planning organizing administration–coordination of departments agencies–implementation of government policies–supervision of bureaucracy–budget preparation financial management–resource allocation decisions–communication with legislature public–political leadership role–maintaining law order security–crisis management responsibilities–ensuring administrative efficiency accountability–effective governance outcomes.

24.Administration oriented towards development–focus on socio-economic transformation-emerged in post-colonial developing countries–state led development initiatives–features- goal oriented administration–innovation flexibility change orientation–participatory approaches involving citizens–community development programmes–focus on poverty reduction inequality–improving living standards–integration of planning implementation–administrative reforms capacity building–objectives economic growth social justice–balanced regional development–strengthening institutions governance–promoting sustainable development.