ANSWER KEY
QP CODE:25901457

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAR EXAMINATION March 2026
FOURTH SEMESTER
Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) - MG4DSEPOL201 - MULTILATERAL INSTITUTIONS AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE
(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

PART A

1. Capitalism

2. India

3. Peace of Westphalia

4. 2015

5. Rise of the Rest/Rise of the East/Asian Century

6. Sovereign Equality

7. International Monetary Fund

8. United Nations

9. Individual Rights/Universal Human Rights

10. No-Harm Principle

PART B

11.Realist view of international politics–anarchic international system–absence of central authority–self-help principle–survival as primary state goal–protection of national security–pursuit of power and interests–rational state actors–strategic decision making–balance of power politics–priority to national interest–security and territorial integrity–military capability diplomacy alliances–Hans Morgenthau Kenneth Waltz–scepticism toward idealism–conflict competition among states

12.Economic inequality and unemployment–search for better livelihoods–rural to urban migration–poverty and lack of opportunities–industrialization-urbanization processes–political instability and conflict–war, persecution, insecurity–forced displacement refugees–environmental factors-climate change–natural disasters-drought floods–education and employment opportunities abroad–family reunification networks–government policies immigration laws–global labour mobility trends.

13.Adoption by United Nations in 2015–global development framework–agenda until 2030–seventeen sustainable development goals–integrated social economic environmental dimensions–goals like poverty eradication–quality education gender equality–climate action–principle of leaving no one behind–focus on inclusive development–reducing inequalities– global partnerships for implementation–cooperation among states institutions civil society–monitoring through indicators–periodic global progress reviews.

14.Non-Governmental organizations in global politics–independent civil society actors-advocacy and awareness campaigns–influencing international agendas–participation in global conferences–policy lobbying at international institutions–monitoring government commitments–human rights environmental protection–providing expertise research data–policy recommendations–implementation of development projects–humanitarian relief programs–strengthening accountability transparency–voice for marginalized communities.

15.Peaceful method of conflict resolution–third party facilitation–neutral mediator role–communication between disputing states–confidence building measures–flexible informal negotiation process–voluntary participation by parties–reducing tensions and misunderstandings–exploring mutually acceptable solutions–preventing escalation of armed conflict–saving diplomatic relations–examples United Nations mediation efforts–regional organization initiatives.

16.Bipolar world order after World War II–rivalry between United States and Soviet Union–ideological conflict capitalism versus communism–military alliances NATO Warsaw Pact–political mistrust and strategic competition–arms race nuclear deterrence–limited cooperation in international institutions–deadlock in United Nations Security Council–emergence of non-aligned movement–efforts to maintain neutrality–periodic détente and arms control agreements–impact on global diplomacy cooperation.

17.Regional economic cooperation agreements–trade liberalization and common markets–removal of tariffs barriers–greater economic interdependence–shared policy frameworks among member states–harmonization of regulations–partial pooling of sovereignty–delegation to supranational institutions–examples European Union economic integration–regional trade blocs–debate between national autonomy–benefits of economic cooperation

18.United Nations Human Rights treaty- adopted in 1966–entered into force 1976–recognition of economic social cultural rights–right to work education health–adequate standard of living housing food–social security protections–state obligations to respect protect fulfil rights–progressive realization principles- monitoring by UN Committee on Economic Social Cultural Rights–importance for global social justice–guiding national policy frameworks.

19.International cooperation in health emergencies–coordination among states organizations–role of World Health Organization leadership–global surveillance systems–early detection and information sharing–transparent reporting of outbreaks–equitable access to vaccines medicines–global solidarity mechanisms–public health preparedness strategies–strengthening national health systems–ethical principles equity human rights–collective response to pandemics.

20.International financial institution established 1944–part of Bretton Woods system–objective of reducing global poverty–promoting economic development–providing loans and financial assistance–funding infrastructure projects–support for education health agriculture–technical expertise policy advice–International Bank for Reconstruction and Development–International Development Association–capacity building institutional reforms–supporting sustainable development initiatives.

PART C

21.Norms as shared standards of behaviour–collective expectations in international relations–guiding state conduct–ideas shaping policy preferences–constructivist perspective in global politics–importance of beliefs and values–norm diffusion through international institutions-role of treaties conventions agreements–agenda setting in global governance–promotion of human rights environmental norms–socialization of states into accepted practices–peer pressure and legitimacy concerns–influence of epistemic communities–experts academics policy networks–non state actors promoting norms–NGOs advocacy coalitions–norm internalization in domestic policies–impact on international cooperation outcomes

22.Regional political and economic union–established through European integration process–foundations in treaties like Maastricht and Lisbon–supranational governance institutions–common market and free movement–goods services capital labour mobility–shared policies in trade agriculture competition–economic and monetary union–euro currency for member states–European Central Bank monetary coordination–institutions like European Commission–European Parliament Council of the EU–promotion of peace stability prosperity–regional integration and cooperation–objectives of economic growth social cohesion–democratic values and human rights unequal distribution of power among states–dominance of major powers–decision making influence of powerful countries–structural inequalities in institutions.

23.Veto power in UN Security Council–limitations on collective action–smaller states marginalization in negotiations–asymmetry in resources capabilities–agenda setting controlled by powerful actors–institutional bias in global governance–dependence of weaker states on stronger powers–economic and political leverage–impact on legitimacy credibility of institutions–challenges to effectiveness–calls for institutional reform democratization–greater representation equity.

24.United Nations as central multilateral institution–founded after Second World War–objective of maintaining international peace security–platform for diplomatic dialogue–peacekeeping operations conflict resolution missions–humanitarian assistance programs–promotion of international law human rights–development cooperation frameworks–specialized agencies like WHO-UNESCO-UNDP–global governance coordination–challenges from shifting power structures–rise of emerging powers–limitations due to Security Council veto politics–state sovereignty constraints–need for institutional reforms inclusive multilateralism–adapting to changing global order.