25901538 – Answer Key

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAR EXAMINATION March 2026
Fourth SEMESTER
Value Addition Course(VAC) - MG4VACSOC200 - PUBLIC POLICY AND SOCIAL INCLUSION
(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes Maximum Marks: 50

Part A

Short Answer

Answer any 13 questions

Each question carries 2 marks

1. Environmental policy promotes sustainable development by balancing ecological protection and economic growth.
2. Untouchability is a caste-based practice of social exclusion and discrimination.
3. Minority scholarships and reservation policies support minority empowerment.
4. Decentralisation of power means distributing authority to local institutions.
5. Tribal communities face exclusion due to isolation, poverty, and lack of access to services.
6. Environmental policy aims to conserve resources and prevent degradation.
7. RED refers to redistributive discourse focusing on equitable resource distribution.
8. Social justice ensures fairness, while the welfare state promotes well-being through policies.
9. SID explains exclusion as a multidimensional process of deprivation.
10. Public policy refers to government actions to address societal issues.
11. MUD explains exclusion as arising from structural inequalities.
12. SID suggests strategies like inclusion and empowerment to reduce exclusion.
13. Affirmative action helps marginalized groups through special provisions.
14. Inclusive policymaking involves participation of diverse social groups.
15. Haritha Keralam Mission aims at environmental sustainability in Kerala.
16. Representative policymaking ensures inclusion of diverse interests in decisions.

Part B

Short Essay

Answer all questions

Each question carries 6 marks

17. Systemic exclusion marginalizes individuals based on gender and religion. It limits access to resources, rights, and opportunities.

18. Local self-government ensures decentralised governance at the grassroots level. It plays a crucial role in implementing policies effectively.

19. Grassroots advocacy empowers marginalized communities to voice their concerns. It strengthens democratic participation and social inclusion.

20. Public policy formulation involves stages like agenda setting, drafting, implementation, and evaluation. It requires coordination among multiple stakeholders.