25901569

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAR EXAMINATION MARCH 2026

FOURTH SEMESTER

Discipline Specific Core Course (DSC) - MG4DSCTTM201 - TOURISM MARKETING

(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes Maximum Marks: 50

Part A

Short Answer Questions Answer any 5 questions Each question carries 2 marks

1. Outline the evolution of tourism marketing. [U] / [CO1]
Tourism marketing has evolved from traditional methods like print and word-of-mouth to digital platforms, social media, and personalized marketing strategies.

2. Explain how internal marketing supports the tourism marketing mix. [U] / [CO2]
Internal marketing supports the tourism marketing mix by training and motivating employees to deliver quality service aligned with product, price, place, and promotion strategies.

3. How does technology influence tourism product design? [U] / [CO2]
Technology influences tourism product design by enabling customization, virtual experiences, online booking systems, and real-time feedback integration.

4. Discuss the importance of monitoring tourism product performance. [An] / [CO2]
Monitoring tourism product performance is important to evaluate customer satisfaction, improve services, and maintain competitiveness.

5. Name two types of events. [K] / [CO3]
Cultural events , business events ETC ….

6. Describe the components of destination marketing. [U] / [CO3]
The components of destination marketing include attractions, accessibility, amenities, image, and promotion strategies.

7. Describe the importance of data-driven decision-making in shaping future tourism trends. [U] / [CO4]
Data-driven decision-making helps shape future tourism trends by analyzing customer preferences, predicting demand, and improving strategic planning.

8. Analyze how user-generated content influences tourism brand perceptions. [An] / [CO4]
User-generated content influences tourism brand perceptions by enhancing trust, authenticity, and credibility through reviews and shared experiences.

Part B
Short Essay Questions Answer any 5 questions Each question carries 5 marks

9. Note on tourism marketing support to destination development. [U] / [CO1]

Tourism marketing supports destination development by attracting tourists and increasing awareness of the destination. It also helps generate revenue and encourages infrastructure and service improvements.

10. List and explain the different marketing management philosophies relevant to tourism. [K] / [CO1]

The main philosophies include production, product, selling, marketing, and societal marketing concepts. These focus on efficiency, quality, promotion, customer needs, and social responsibility respectively.

11. Examine the influence of culture on tourism advertising messages. [An] / [CO2]

Culture influences tourism advertising by shaping values, symbols, language, and preferences used in promotions. Advertisements must align with cultural norms to effectively attract target audiences.

12. Explain the importance of customer feedback and market research in tourism planning. [An] / [CO2]

Customer feedback and market research help identify tourist needs and expectations for better planning. They also assist in improving services and making informed strategic decisions.

13. Discuss the impact of tourism development on local employment. [U] / [CO3]

Tourism development creates job opportunities in hotels, transport, and other related sectors. It also supports indirect employment through local businesses and services.

14. Identify major social issues arising from tourism development. [K] / [CO3]

Major social issues include cultural erosion, overcrowding, and increased cost of living. It may also lead to inequality and exploitation of local communities.

15. Discuss the role of policy and regulation in shaping tourism marketing. [U] / [CO4]

Policies and regulations ensure ethical marketing practices and protect consumer interests. They also guide sustainable development and control misleading promotions.

16. Evaluate the challenges faced in implementing green marketing. [E] / [CO4]

Green marketing faces challenges like high costs and lack of awareness among consumers and businesses. There is also difficulty in maintaining authenticity and avoiding green washing.

Part C

Long Essay Questions Answer any 1 questions Each question carries 15 marks

17. Analyze the impact of sustainability on tourism product development. [E] / [CO2]

Sustainability has a significant impact on tourism product development by promoting eco-friendly and responsible practices. It encourages the use of renewable resources and reduction of environmental damage. Tourism products are designed to protect natural and cultural heritage. This approach helps maintain long-term benefits for both tourists and local communities. It also attracts environmentally conscious travelers and improves the destination's image.

18. Identify the factors affecting destination reputation. [K] / [CO3]

Destination reputation is influenced by service quality, safety, and cleanliness. Tourist satisfaction and overall experience play a crucial role in shaping opinions. Online reviews, social media, and word-of-mouth greatly affect reputation. Media coverage and government policies also contribute to public perception. Additionally, cultural attractions and effective marketing strategies enhance the destination's image.

19. Investigate the role of experiential marketing in tourism and how it can enhance customer engagement and satisfaction. [E] / [CO4]

Experiential marketing in tourism focuses on creating unique and memorable experiences for visitors. It allows tourists to actively participate in activities rather than just observe. This involvement builds emotional connections with the destination. It increases customer engagement and enhances overall satisfaction. As a result, it leads to repeat visits and positive recommendations.