MGU UGP(HONOURS) REGULAR EXAM – APRIL- 2026

SECOND SEMESTER

MG2MDCPHL100- PHILOSOPHY OF ART (INDIAN)

QP-CODE-25901747 ANSWER KEY

PART A

1. Sphota theory, alamkara theory, dhvani theory etc.
2. Bharata the saint.

3. Sthanaka or standing, asana or sitting and sayana or reclining.

4. Also called sanchari bhava. They are transitory emotions

5. Angika

6. Varna-sphota or letter form and pada-sphota or word form.

7.Sanchi-Stupa of Ashoka.

8. Prathyamanartha refers to the suggestive , implied or indirect meaning which is deeper, aesthetic sense that emerges beyond the literal meaning of words.

PART-B

9. Give an introduction to Indian aesthetics- relation to spirituality-relation to Vedas and Upanishads-various references of art in Vedas and Upanishads- role of yajnas-kama-chanda-kama-dhenu-para-kala and apara-kala-para- vidya and apara vidya-supreme beauty-Raso Vai sah Brahma-identification of speech with Brahman etc.

10. Rasa establishes a relation between spectator and performer.Defined as the aesthetic flavour of a performance. It establishes the purpose of a performance. Bhavas that fail to create rasa is meaningless.Explain the 9 rasas.

11.Give an introduction to Aurobindo and his evolutionary theory of art-philosophy,art and consciousness-Transformation of humans inner life-art for art's sake-art is vital tool towards Divine-purpose of art-transformation of the soul's consciousness for chittasuddhi-art as a channel towards intuitive vision etc.

12. Angika- Expression through Body

Vacika- Expression through speech

Aharya- Expression through costume

Sattvika- Expression through inner feeling

Cari abhinaya- Expression through movement patterns(in Abhinaya Darpana)

13. Give an introduction to music as an art-peculiarities of music-sacred-spiritual-transformative-Gandharva Veda-Sama Veda-Nada Brahman-a spiritual exercise designed to turn to the pathway of liberation-transformation of emotions towards Rasa and Ananda etc.

14. Give an introduction to Rabindranath Tagore and his creative theory of art-Tagore as a poet-musician-painter-art transcends the concept of difference between artist and art form-the element of personality-element of style-intrinsic principle of art-the essence of art-concept of considering artist as the servant and master of the particular unique vision.

15.Introduction to Ramachandra Dattatraya Ranade and his aesthetic concept of art as a sublime one-beauty and sublimity-relation of beautiful objects and the concept of beauty-beauty as not phenomenal-attributes of God-spiritual experience-difference between perceiver and the seen-relative dependence of the seer etc.

16.Alambana vibhava- the main characters eg: hero, heroine

Uddipana vibhava- the enhancing factors eg: ambience/ garden, moonlight, music etc

PART-C

17. Give an introduction to aesthetics-etymology of the word aesthetics-difference between Indian aesthetics and western aesthetics-Indian aesthetics as Saundarya Sastra-rooted in Natyasastra- difference between true art and aesthetics-how Bharata harmonise sensory experience with the spiritual-transformation from physical to spiritual-Satyam Sivam Sundaram-role of sahrdaya-rasa creation-emphasis of Vedas and Upanishads etc.

18. Give an introduction to Indian theories of language-types and schools of Indian theories of language-role of figures of speech in language-alamkara-various alamkaras-role of sabda and Artha in language-upama-rupaka-dipaka and yamaka-atisayokti-vakroti -sabdalamkara-arthalamkara-role of rasa-relevance of indirect embellishments in poetic language etc.