ANSWER KEY
QP CODE:25901755

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAR/IMPROVEMENT/REAPPEARANCE EXAMINATION APRIL 2026
SECOND SEMESTER
Multi-Disciplinary Courses (MDC) - MG2MDCPOL101 - POLITICS OF HUMAN SECURITY
(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

PART A

1. b) The Universal Declaration of Human Rights
2. a) CERT[Computer Emergency Response Team]
3. a) The State of Food Security and Nutrition in the World
4. d) IBRD & IDA
5. b, d) Human activities
6. a) Article 5
7. b) Human Development Index (HDI)
8. b) Serum Institute of India (SII)
9. a) United Nations (UN)
10. b) The expected increase in global temperature due to a doubling of CO_2 levels

PART B

11. Universal Declaration of Human Rights- adopted by the United Nations in 1948 - establishes fundamental rights and freedoms for all individuals without discrimination - promotes dignity equality and justice - forms the basis for global human rights protection and strengthens human security worldwide.

12. United Nations -security initiatives include peacekeeping missions- human rights monitoring and humanitarian assistance - help prevent conflicts violence and discrimination in vulnerable regions - promote international cooperation and protection of civilians - support democratic institutions rule of law and enforcement of fundamental human rights standards.

13. Poverty weakens human security- limiting access to food healthcare education and employment opportunities - increases vulnerability to crime exploitation and social exclusion - creates economic instability and poor living conditions - reduction of poverty improves social welfare human dignity and overall national security.

14. Financial institutions such as World Bank and IMF- provide loans grants and development assistance to countries - support poverty reduction, healthcare, education and infrastructure development - encourage economic stability and employment generation - strengthen human security by improving living standards and reducing social inequalities globally.

15. Lack of nutritious food- causes malnutrition weakness and reduced immunity against diseases - affects physical growth mental development and overall productivity of individuals - children and pregnant women are highly vulnerable - food insecurity increases health risks poverty and social instability in communities and nations.

16. Paris Agreement- aims to reduce global greenhouse gas emissions and limit global temperature rise - encourages countries to adopt climate action plans and renewable energy policies - promotes international cooperation financial support and sustainable development - strengthens global efforts to combat climate change and environmental degradation.

17. Sustainable Development Goals are part of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development adopted by the United Nations in 2015 - consist of seventeen global goals addressing poverty inequality climate change and peace - provide a framework for sustainable development - promote social economic and environmental progress worldwide.

18. Democratic governance- promotes human security through protection of human rights rule of law and public participation - ensures accountability transparency and equal opportunities in society - reduces corruption discrimination and political oppression - strengthens social justice political stability and citizen welfare in democratic nations.

PART C

19. Digital tools such as online health portals mobile applications and data dashboards improve transparency in public health governance - enable real time sharing of health information, disease tracking and vaccination updates - strengthen accountability by monitoring government actions and healthcare delivery systems - promote citizen participation, feedback mechanisms and quicker response during emergencies - help reduce corruption, misinformation and administrative delays in health-care management and policy implementation.

20. World Health Organization- coordinates global efforts to prevent control and manage pandemics - provides technical guidance medical support and emergency response strategies to member countries - monitors disease outbreaks and shares scientific information through international networks - supports vaccine research distribution and public health awareness campaigns - strengthens healthcare systems and encourages international cooperation for effective pandemic preparedness response and recovery across nations.

21. Human Rights Commission in India- protects and promotes fundamental rights of citizens - investigates complaints related to human rights violations by public authorities and institutions - creates awareness through education research and policy recommendations - supports vulnerable groups including women children minorities and prisoners - strengthens human security by ensuring justice equality dignity and protection against discrimination violence and abuse in society.

22. Human security- refers to protection of individuals from threats such as poverty violence disease and environmental disasters - focuses on freedom from fear, freedom from want, and human dignity - emphasizes safety, well-being and development of people rather than only state security - includes economic, food, health, environmental, personal, community and political security - promotes human rights, social justice, sustainable development and international cooperation for peaceful and secure societies.