Answer Key – Organizational Behavior in Tourism and Hospitality

MGU-BVOC (Honours) Regular Examination April 2026

Part A – One Word Answer Questions

1. Name the term used for disagreement between individuals or groups in an organization. [CO1]
Answer: Conflict.

2. The last stage of group development is called _____ stage. [CO4]
Answer: Adjourning.

3. Name the shared target pursued by team members. [CO3]
Answer: Goal.

4. Name the psychological and physical pressure experienced by employees. [CO1]
Answer: Stress.

5. The discipline that studies human mental processes is _____. [CO1]
Answer: Psychology.

6. Name the presence of employees from varied backgrounds in an organization. [CO3]
Answer: Workforce Diversity.

7. The ability to influence others is called _____. [CO3]
Answer: Leadership.

Part B – Short Answer Questions

8. Describe negotiation in conflict management. [CO2]
Answer: Negotiation is a process where conflicting parties discuss to reach a mutually acceptable solution.

9. Illustrate the use of meditation in stress management. [CO3]
Answer: Meditation reduces stress by improving concentration, relaxation, and emotional stability.

10. Define informal group. [CO4]
Answer: An informal group is formed naturally based on friendship or common interests.

11. What is the “Open Area” in Johari Window? [CO2]
Answer: Information known both to the individual and others.

12. Describe intergroup conflict in organizations. [CO1]
Answer: Conflict occurring between different groups or departments in an organization.

13. Describe fear as a reason for resistance to change. [CO4]
Answer: Employees fear uncertainty, job loss, or inability to adapt to new systems.

14. State two importance of personality in performance. [CO2]
Answer: Personality improves communication and work performance.

Part C – Essay Questions

15. Explain role conflict and its impact on employees. [CO1]
Answer: Role conflict occurs when employees face incompatible expectations, causing stress, confusion, and reduced job satisfaction.

16. Discuss contribution of psychology and sociology to OB. [CO1]

Answer: Psychology studies behaviour and motivation, while sociology studies group behaviour and social relationships in organizations.

17. Explain behavioural theories of leadership. [CO3]
Answer: Behavioural theories focus on leader actions and styles such as task-oriented and people-oriented leadership.

18. Describe the role of surveys in assessing organizational culture. [CO4]
Answer: Surveys collect employee opinions and help identify strengths and weaknesses in organizational culture.

19. Explain the importance of customer orientation in hospitality organizations. [CO3]
Answer: Customer orientation improves service quality, customer satisfaction, and business success.

20. Discuss factors influencing group behaviour. [CO4]
Answer: Leadership, communication, group norms, and interpersonal relationships influence group behaviour.

21. Compare autocratic and supportive models of OB. [CO1]
Answer: Autocratic model is authority-based, while supportive model focuses on motivation and employee participation.

Part D – Long Essay Questions

22. Discuss determinants of personality and their impact on employee behaviour. [CO2]
Answer: Personality is influenced by heredity, environment, situations, and experiences. It affects teamwork, communication, leadership, and performance.

23. Explain the concept and significance of organizational change in modern organizations. [CO4]
Answer: Organizational change involves modifications in structure or processes to improve efficiency, adaptability, and competitiveness.

24. Discuss the strategies used by managers to overcome resistance to change. [CO4]
Answer: Strategies include communication, participation, training, counselling, negotiation, and supportive leadership.

25. Explain the concept and characteristics of organizational culture. [CO4]
Answer: Organizational culture refers to shared values and beliefs that influence employee behaviour and organizational success.