MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

MGU-UGP (HONOURS) Regular EXAMINATION October 2025

Third SEMESTER

Value Addition Course (VAC) - MG3VACTTM200 - HOLISTIC APPROACH TO HEALTH AND WELLNESS TOURISM

(2024 Admission Onwards)

Duration: 1 Hour 30 Minutes | Maximum Marks: 50

SCHEME

1. Name two ancient civilizations known for practicing health and wellness tourism.
   a) Egypt
   b) Greece
   c) Rome

2. Discuss how sustainability is integrated into wellness tourism destination management.
Answer:Sustainability in wellness tourism is integrated through eco-friendly infrastructure, use of local resources, waste reduction, and promoting responsible visitor behavior.

3.. Explain the difference between health tourism and wellness tourism.
Answer: Health tourism focuses on curing or treating illnesses, while wellness tourism emphasizes maintaining or improving well-being through preventive care and holistic practices.

4. Name any two digital platforms that facilitate wellness tourism through health tracking and management.
Answer: Fitbit , Apple Health, clam and head space apps, Tele-health services.

5. Identify one reason why older adults may struggle with tech-based wellness services.
Answer: Older adults may face difficulties due to limited digital literacy or unfamiliarity with new technologies.

6. State one benefit of massage therapy for blood circulation
Answer:Augmented Reality helps simulate surgeries and visualize anatomy for better learning and skill development.it also helps in relaxation therapy and health education.

7. State one benefit of massage therapy for blood circulation.
Answer:Massage therapy improves blood flow by stimulating muscles and reducing tension, enhancing oxygen delivery to tissues.

8. How do natural spas help in stress management?
Answer: Natural spas provide relaxation through hydrotherapy, mineral-rich water, and tranquil environments that reduce stress hormones

.

9. Explain how recreational tourism supports physical and mental well-being, using examples.
Answer: Recreational tourism includes activities like hiking, cycling, and adventure travel that promote fitness and mental rejuvenation. For example, nature-based tourism reduces anxiety and boosts mood.
10. Explain the difference between health tourism and wellness tourism with examples.
Answer: Health tourism involves travel for medical treatments such as surgeries or therapies, while wellness tourism focuses on preventive measures like yoga retreats or spa therapies.

11. List and describe five different typologies of health and wellness tourism.
Answer: Typologies include Medical Tourism, Spa Tourism, Yoga Tourism, Ayurveda Tourism, and Eco-Wellness Tourism, each focusing on specific healing or rejuvenation experiences.

12. Define health and wellness tourism for specialized groups, and give two examples of such groups.
Answer: Health and wellness tourism for specialized groups caters to individuals with unique needs such as elderly travelers or differently-abled persons, offering customized health services.

13. Explain how AI chatbots have contributed to success in wellness tourism.
Answer: AI chatbots assist customers in booking wellness packages, answering health queries, and offering personalized suggestions, improving user experience and efficiency.

14. Discuss the barriers of using virtual reality in healthcare and wellness.
Answer: Barriers include high equipment cost, limited access, motion sickness issues, and the need for technical expertise.

15. State and explain five characteristics of hydrotherapy.
Answer: Hydrotherapy involves water for treatment. Characteristics: temperature control, buoyancy, pressure, mineral use, and therapeutic immersion for relaxation and recovery.

16. Discuss the importance of yoga in promoting spiritual wellness.
Answer: Yoga connects the body and mind, fostering inner peace, mindfulness, and emotional stability, essential for spiritual wellness.

Part C: Long Essay Questions (15 Marks each)

Answer any 1 question

17. Explain how motivation differs between primary and secondary wellness tourists. Give example.
Answer: Primary wellness tourists travel mainly for wellness activities like yoga retreats or detox camps. Secondary wellness tourists engage in wellness activities as part of a broader travel purpose, such as relaxing spa sessions during vacations.

18. Summarize the role of best practices in helping to overcome the challenges faced by wellness tourism businesses.
Answer: Best practices such as maintaining hygiene standards, providing authentic experiences, adopting digital marketing, and sustainability initiatives help overcome issues like competition, customer trust, and service quality.

19. Discuss the major objectives of mud therapy in promoting health and wellness.
Answer: Mud therapy aims to detoxify the body, improve circulation, relieve inflammation, and rejuvenate the skin. It’s used in naturopathy centers for relaxation and therapeutic benefits.