MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

MGU-UGP (HONOURS)

THIRD SEMESTER EXAMINATION

(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

MG3DSCAQC201 – Taxonomy and Morphology of Finfishes

Duration: 1.5 hrs Maximum Marks: 50

Students should attempt atleast one question from each course outcome to enhance their overall outcome attainability.

Part A
Very Short Answer Questions
Answer All Questions
Each question carries 1 mark

1.Who wrote the book Systema Naturae? [1] [U]

2. Which Greek scholar is believed to have first divided animals into vertebrates and non-vertebrates? [1] [U]

3. Name any two gears used for the collection of fish specimens .[2][U]

4.What is the most commonly used fixatives for preserving fish specimens [2] [U]

5. What distinguishes Class Chondrichthyes from other finfish classes? [4] [A]

6. Name one characteristic of the fish family Salmonidae. [4] [U]

7. What is electrophoresis used for? [5] [U]

8. What is karyotyping used for? [5] [U]

9. What is the systematic position of fishes in the Phylum Chordata up to the order level? [3] [U]

10. What are Dichotomous keys in Fish taxonomy. [2,3] [U]

[1 x 10 =10] Marks

Part B
Short Answer Questions
Answer any 5 Questions
Each question carries 6 marks

13. Describe the methods used for the collection, preservation, labelling and curation of fish specimens for scientific study. [2] [U]

14. Explain the systematic position of fishes in the Phylum Chordata up to the level of Orders. [2,3] [U]

15.Describe the procedure of DNA barcoding in fishes. [5] [U]

16. Write a short note on Karyotyping and Metabarcoding. [5] [U]

17.Differentiate between Spiracles and Ampulle of Lorenzinii? [4] [A]

18.Discuss the general characters of Family Angullidae. [4] [A]

19. Draw a flow chart for the classification of the Animal Kingdom [1] [U]

[6 x 5 = 30] Marks

Part C
Essay Type Questions
Answer any one Question
Each question carries 10 marks

20. Explain the morphological, morphometric and meristic characters of fish and their importance in fish identification and taxonomy. [2] [U]

21.Describe the general characters of the Class Chondrichthyes. [3] [U]

22. Describe the classification of Class Osteichthyes, its general characters and differences among its subclasses- Crossopterygii and Actinopterygii. [1] [U]

[10 x 1 = 10] Marks