25900073 MGU- UGP(Hons.) Regular Examination March 2025

Second Semester

(2024 Admns)

MG2MDCEng100 NARRATIVES OF LOVE AND FRIENDSHIP

Max. Marks: 50 Duration 1.5 Hrs

Answer Key

Part A – MCQ

Answer all Questions. Each question carries 1 mark

1. a. M Scott Peck (CO1)
2. d convince him to turn himself in (CO2)
3. c overwhelming desire (CO3)
4. b. The speaker's toughness and resilience. (CO3)
5. c. In the rain at Rosings (CO2)

Part B – Short Answer

Answer any 6 Questions. Each question carries 5 marks

6. The speaker poet is imagined as a poor rag picker who lives in poverty and miserable circumstances of life. He is insulted and looked down upon by everyone. However his is a life of freedom and openness. He woos aristocratic Malayalam poetry from chains of canonical mainstream to a subaltern life of freedom. (CO3)

7. Small and stuffy room- it's a coffin like room.- mirroring his mental state- claustrophobia and isolation- reflects his growing alienation. (CO2)

8. Says love is a truth procedure- begins as an event- shared world from the perspective of two rather than one- requires risk openness and exposure.- challenges modern love. (CO1)

9. Soul chooses only a few people- once it chooses it excludes others- gives importance to personal space-not influenced by any external factors- doesn't bend in front of power. (CO3)

10. Raskolnikov's reluctance to accept the cross from Sonia symbolises his denial of guilt and his struggle to reconcile his actions with his own beliefs. He resists the idea of redemption- makes intellectual justifications for the murder. (CO2)

11. Raw and emotional poem- portrays lost love and memories- poet explains how past love affects him- how her memory lingers- says no longer loves her- says it's the last time he writes about her. (CO3)

12. People connect beyond physical barriers- how important communication is in a relationship- how they share an emotional connection without seeing each other. (CO2)

13. Imprisonment and freedom are not just physical states- it is a mental state too- imprisonment is a state of isolation- his relationship gave him emotional freedom- emotional freedom is as important as physical freedom. (CO2)

14. Gazal XX - revolves around unfulfilled love, longing. - it tells about tension between desire and spiritual transcendence- tells about intense emotions- emotional pain can lead to more deeper insight. (CO3)

Part C - Essay
Answer any 1 question. Each question carries 15 marks

15. Metaphors are used to convey depth , beauty and true friendship. - evokes planting, growing and harvesting- mutual giving and receiving in friendships- friendship is seen as comfort- it is a home- it should reflect safety and intimacy adding emotional warmth- friends are like strings of lute. (CO3)

16. Friendship is the least necessary love compared to all four- it is essential, foundational and enriching- it is a quiet love- how society undervalues friendship- not loud or dramatic- provides emotional support- called as least necessary but is deeply necessary. (CO1)

17. Johnsy was struck down by pneumonia in winter. Her friend Sue brought a doctor, but Johnsy was sinking. Johnsy believed that she would die when the last leaf of the ivy outside their house fell. Behrman, an elderly artist went out on the winter night and painted the last leaf. He caught pneumonia and died. Behrman sacrificed his own life to save the life of Johnsy. (CO2)
