25900151

MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAR EXAMINATION -MARCH-2025

SECOND SEMESTER

MULTI DISCIPLINARY COURSES (MDC))

SCHEME - MG2MDCPHL100-PHILOSOPHY OF ART (INDIAN)

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

PART A

1. The primary aim is to evoke specific emotional responses or rasas in the audiences aiming to transport them to another reality where they experience eternal bliss. K-(CO1)

2. Angika, Vachika, Aharya, Sattvika. (K-CO4, CO5)

3. Define dhvani theory- Difference between poetic and conventional meaning-Difference between literal meaning and suggested meaning. K-(CO6)

4. Bibhatsa rasa is one of the nine rasas in Indian classical literature,drama,aesthetics cause disgust violence. U-(CO4, CO5)

5. Art and aesthetics are spiritual and evolutionary. It is an evolution of natural things into a level of brahmanubhooti. It is a tool for spiritual evolution. K-(CO7,CO8)

6.kala is a capacity to create something that can lead to the fulfilment of desires.2. It involves skill ,observation, concentration, expression, of inner states and the capacity to guess the mental states of other persons. U-(CO2, CO3)

7. Sanskrit K-(CO3)

8. Ramachandra Dattatreya Ranade was an eminent Indian scholar, philosopher and saint of Maharashtra. U-(CO7,CO8)

[2X5=10]

PART B

9. Voluntary (dancing, singing), Involuntary (change in voice, tears etc) K-(CO3,CO4)

10. All three theories emphasize the importance of understanding meaning beyond literal level-They all explore the interconnectedness of sound and meaning by recognizing that words are not just symbols but convey emotional and intellectual content etc. An-(CO7)

11. Introduction to Indian art of sculpture-define the art of sculpture- materials of ancient Indian sculptures—sculptures of Mauryan period-Sanchi Stupa-Buddha statue at Sarnath etc. K-(CO3,CO4)

12. Creates powerful emotional experience,audience,(rasa-vibhava interplay) vibhava rasa connection, enhancing emotional intensity etc. U-(CO3)

13. Introduction to Tagore's creative theory of art – 3 Intrinsic principles-Element of style, element of personality and the element of essence of art etc. An-(CO7,CO8)

14. Introduction to roots of music – relation of music to Samaveda-Two major traditions of Indian music-special features of Hindustani music-etc. U-(CO3,CO4)

15. Fear, Terror, Dark, frightening characters, ghosts, monsters, omnious sounds, fearful situations etc. K-(CO4,CO5)

16. Artists personal perspective- their understanding of the world-Their unique way of seeing things that shapes their creative output-creativity-imagination and innovation-intution and insights-self expression etc

Ap-(CO4)

[5X5=25]

PART C

17. Introduction to Indiaan theories of language-define various theories of language- kavyalamkara-the role of sabda and artha- sabdalamkara and artalamkara etc. An-(CO8)

18. Introduction to Indian theories of language- Definition of Sphota theory- the role of word,symbols, sentence, semantics,- etymology- contributions of Bhartrhari- relation between speaker and hearer- three aspects of language- classifications and comprehension U-(CO6,CO8)

[15X1=15]