Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam

MGU-UGP (Honours)

Fifth Semester Examination

(2024 Admission Onwards)

MG5DSEENG304– LITERATURE FROM THE MARGINS

Duration: 2 hrs Maximum Marks: 70

Students should attempt at least one question from each course outcome to enhance their overall outcome attainability.

Learning Domains	Remember (R), Understand (U), Apply (A), Analyse (An), Evaluate (E)

PART A

MCQ

Answer All Questions

Each question carries 1 mark

1. What does Betty Friedan mean by "the problem that has no name"?
   A) Lack of educational opportunities
   B) The dissatisfaction experienced by women confined to domestic roles
   C) Economic inequality among men
   D) Political conflicts between women [U] [CO1]

2. According to Friedan, what was expected of the ideal American woman?
   A) To pursue a political career
   B) To become a professional writer
   C) To find fulfilment mainly as a wife and mother
   D) To avoid family responsibilities. [U] [CO1]

3. What does the concept of the "marginal man" primarily refer to?
   A) A person fully integrated into one culture
   B) A person caught between two different cultures or social groups
   C) A person isolated from society
   D) A person who rejects all cultural values [U] [CO1]

4. Why is the child interpreted as a symbol of the future?
   A) The child represents hope and renewal
   B) The child represents social conflict
   C) The child represents materialism
   D) The child represents isolation [R] [CO2]

5. Classify the speaker's attitude towards her oppressors in the poem "Still I Rise."
   A) Submissive
   B) Defiant
   C) Indifferent

D) Apologetic [U] [CO2]

6. What is the central idea represented by Jashoda's body?
   A) Female labour and exploitation
   B) Political authority
   C) Educational achievement
   D) Economic independence. [R] [CO2]

7. Which Pakistani female political leader's return and assassination does Malala describe in the memoir?
   A) Hina Rabbani Khar
   B) Sherry Rehman
   C) Benazir Bhutto
   D) Fehmida Mirza [R] [CO3]

8. How do Ferris's disability poems most often treat medical professionals and institutions?
   A) They portray doctors as unquestioned heroes who always know what is best.
   B) They present hospitals only as places of miraculous transformation and healing.
   C) They ignore medical settings altogether to avoid complicating the poems with technical details.
   D) They show medical professionals as powerful figures whose assumptions can both help and harm disabled people. [U] [CO4]

9. How does the poem "A Litany for Survival" redefine the idea of "survival" for marginalized people?
   A) Survival is about accumulating wealth to gain respect
   B) Survival includes speaking, loving, and acting authentically, not just staying alive
   C) Survival is achieved by blending in so completely that no one notices you
   D) Survival means merely avoiding physical death at all costs.
   [U] [CO4]

10. "Coming Out" is part of the collection Yellow is the Colour of Longing, originally written in Malayalam and translated into English by:
   A) Nisha Susan
   B) Mini Krishnan
   C) Gita Krishnankutty
   D) J. Devika [R] [CO4]

(1 X 10= 30)

PART B

Short Answer Questions (100 Words)
Answer any 6 Questions
Each question carries 5 marks

11. Analyse the “problem that has no name” identified by Betty Friedan. [An] [CO1]

12. Analyse the significance of the “marginal man” concept discussed by David I. Golovensky. [An] [CO1]

13. Interpret the title Lullaby in relation to the central ideas of the poem. . [A] [CO2]

14. Explain the significance of the images of the sun, moon, tides and air in the poem “Still I Rise”. [An] [CO2]

15. Summarize the significance of Jashoda’s profession as a wet nurse. [E] [CO2]

16. Examine how honesty, courage, and moral integrity function as key values in Malala's upbringing. Use at least one incident from her childhood that the text uses to highlight these traits. [A] [CO3]

17. In what ways does the poem “Poems of Disabilities” expose abliest assumptions about what counts as a ‘normal’ poem or a ‘normal’ body? [E] [CO4]

18. Explain the significance of silence in the poem “A Litany for Survival”. [A] [CO4]

19. Estimate how the presence of death influence Seba's understanding of love in the story "Coming Out"? [E] [CO4]

(6 X 5= 30)

PART C

Essay Questions (300 Words)

Answer any 2 Questions

Each question carries 15 marks

20. How does David I. Golovensky challenge or question the traditional und of the “marginal man” concept? [E] [CO1]

21. Examine the ways in which Breast-Giver critiques the commodification of the female body. [A] [CO2]

22. Examine how Malala constructs her identity at the intersection of Pashtun culture, Pakistani nationalism, and Islamic faith. How does she differentiate her understanding of Islam from the Taliban's interpretation, and how does the memoir challenge common Westerm stereotypes about Muslim societies and Muslim women?

[A] [CO3]

23. Analyse how K. R. Meera explores the intertwined themes of love, death, and forbidden desire in "Coming Out." How do the funeral setting and John's death reshape Seba's understanding of gender, sexuality, and the meaning of "coming out"? [A] [CO4]

(15 X 2= 30)