Part C
ESSAY
Answer any 2 questions. Each question carries 15 marks

20. Use of elaborate metaphysical conceits (compass metaphor for lovers' souls). Blending intellect and emotion; logical argument supporting spiritual love. Paradox and subtle reasoning; philosophical contemplation of love beyond physical separation. Dramatic, conversational tone; compact, profound ideas. Unconventional imagery and scholarly references; meditation on constancy, spirituality, and transcendent love. [CO1]

21. Celebration of nature's purity, freedom, and joy (skylark as an ideal). Symbolizes transcendent art, spiritual inspiration untouched by sorrow. Contrasts human struggles with bird's happiness; imagination as poetic creativity. Strong emotion and awe before nature; pantheistic undertones. Vivid imagery and lyrical style; subjective experience and natural beauty prioritized. [CO2]

22. Anne shown as imaginative, passionate, independent; love compared to poetic creation. Anne's voice central, emotions foregrounded; sensuous imagery conveys intimacy. Reversal of traditional silencing—poetic expression and agency. Metaphor and simile evoke Anne's memory and longing. Challenges patriarchal literary history, restoring woman's perspective.

[CO4]

23. Love as deep, spiritual, eternal; enumerative structure shows scope of devotion. Surpasses earthly existence; purity, faith, and constancy stressed. Religious, philosophical allusions; love as redemptive force. Repetition and intensity reinforce theme; personal and universal dimensions blended. [CO3]
