25900455

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
MGU-UGP(HONS) REGULAR EXAMINATION OCTOBER 2025
THIRD SEMETSER
MG3DSCHMC201-FOOD & BEVERAGE SERVICE OPERATIONS-I

Answer Key note

Part A

1. À la carte menu – A menu with individually priced dishes; customers choose each item separately.
2. Hors d'oeuvre varés trolley – A trolley displaying assorted appetizers or starters served to guests.
3. Skills for French table service – Silver service technique, coordination, neatness, communication, and table etiquette.
4. One disadvantage of Russian service – Time-consuming and requires highly skilled staff.
5. Characteristics of English service – Food is pre-plated by the host and served by waiters from the left.
6. Two beverage items in breakfast cover – Tea/Coffee and Juice.
7. Two types of breakfast service – Continental breakfast and English breakfast.
8. Main characteristic of finger buffet – Food items are bite-sized and eaten without cutlery.
9. Two disadvantages of buffet service – Food wastage and long queues.
10. Benefits of keeping function book in banquet department – Prevents double booking; maintains record of event details and requirements.
11. Aerated drinks – Beverages infused with carbon dioxide gas (e.g., cola, soda).
12. Two accompaniments with tea – Biscuits and sandwiches.
13. Garnish for cola by glass – Lemon slice or wedge.
14. Two service procedures for bottled water – Present bottle label to guest; open cap in front of guest and pour into glass.
15. Two main cocoa-producing countries – Ghana and Ivory Coast.

Part B

16. Assisted service & types – Combination of waiter and self-service.

- Types: Carvery, Buffet, Gueridon, Tray service.

17. Key principles in menu designing for fine dining –

- Balance (flavors, colors, textures)
- Seasonality
- Variety
- Pricing and theme consistency
- Nutritional balance.

18. English breakfast items & cover setup –

- Items: Fruit juice, cereals, eggs, bacon, sausages, toast, tea/coffee.
- Cover: Side plate, napkin, cutlery (knife, fork, teaspoon), cups, and condiments.

19. Service procedure of Indian breakfast –

- Greet and seat guest
- Serve water and present menu
- Take order (e.g., idli, dosa, paratha)
- Serve main items with chutney/sambar
- Offer tea/coffee and clear table.

20. Differentiate beverages –

- Milk-based: Milkshake, hot chocolate
- Fruit-based: Juices, smoothies
- Egg-based: Eggnog, flips.

21. Hot beverages & classification –

- Definition: Drinks served hot.
- Classes:
    - Coffee (Espresso, Cappuccino)
    - Tea (Black, Green, Herbal)
    - Cocoa-based (Hot chocolate, Malt drinks).

Part C

22. American service & advantages –

- Pre-plated food from kitchen; served from the right.
- Advantages: Fast service, less staff required, consistent portioning, suitable for banquets.

23. Function booking form for wedding reception (Essential details) –

- Client name, contact info, date/time, number of guests, menu, beverages, décor, special requests, payment details, signature.

24. Cold beverages: classification & importance –

- Definition: Drinks served chilled.
- Classification:
    - Aerated (cola, soda)
    - Non-aerated (juices, squashes)
    - Milk-based (milkshake, lassi)

    - Ice-blended (frappé, slush).
- Importance: Refreshing, increases beverage sales, enhances guest experience.