25900474

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

MGU-UGP (HONOURS) Regular EXAMINATION October 2025

Third SEMESTER

Discipline Specific Core Course (DSC) - MG3DSCJMC201 - TELEVISION PRODUCTION

(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

Duration: 2 Hours Maximum Marks: 70

Remember(K), Understand(U), Apply(A), Analyse(An), Evaluate(E), Create(C), Skill(S), Interest(I)

and Appreciation(Ap)

Part A

Multiple Choice Questions

Answer all questions

Each question carries 1 marks

1. Field production usually takes place

b). At outdoor or real-life locations [K] / [CO1]

2. A major change from analogue to digital TV led to

b). Better picture and sound quality [U] / [CO1]

3. Doordarshan began colour broadcasting during the 1982 Asian Games.

a). True [K] / [CO1]

4. Non-news programmes are mainly designed to:

b). Entertain, educate, or inform beyond news [K] / [CO2]

5. Stripping in TV scheduling means:

a). Airing the same show at the same time every day [K] / [CO2]

6. Name the post-production tool commonly used to remove background hum.

c). Noise reducer [K] / [CO6]

7. At what stage does a newsroom's news flow start?

a). Assignment of stories [K] / [CO4]

8. Which among the following designations supervises reporters? [K] / [CO4]

b). Bureau Chief

9. Identify the phase in which lighting and camera blocking occur.

a). Production [K] / [CO6]

10. Identify what interviewers contribute most to.

d). Framing public discourse [K] / [CO4]

[1x10 = 10]

Part B

Short Answer Type Questions (100 Words)

Answer any 10 questions

Each question carries 3 marks

11. Analyze the influence of advertising on the growth of private television channels.

[U] / [CO1]

Advertising has helped private television channels grow by giving them money to make programs, reach more viewers, and improve their setup. It creates competition and encourages different types of shows, but it can also affect the channel's independence.

12. Explain the role of digitization in shaping television broadcasting.

[U] / [CO1]

Digitization revolutionized TV broadcasting by enhancing quality, enabling multiplexing, interactivity, and on-demand content, reducing costs, and globalizing reach, while introducing challenges like piracy and infrastructure investment.

13. Discuss the contribution of mobile phones to television viewership patterns. [A] / [CO1]

Mobile phones have transformed television viewership patterns by enabling on-demand, portable, and personalized content consumption. They facilitate streaming via OTT platforms, increase accessibility to diverse content, and allow viewing anytime, anywhere. Social media integration on mobiles boosts engagement, while data analytics tailor content, enhancing viewer retention. However, smaller screens may reduce immersive experiences, and data costs can limit access for some users.

14. List three ways in which innovation makes TV programmes more engaging. [K] / [CO2]

- Better visuals and effects
- Interactive content
- Creative storytelling
- Use of advanced graphics and animation

- High-quality sound and music
- Multi-platform viewing (TV, phone, tablet)
- Live audience interaction through social media
- Use of virtual or augmented reality
- Personalised content recommendations
- Faster and smarter editing techniques

15. Outline the relevance of factual programmes in our society. [An] / [CO2]

Factual programs, such as documentaries and investigative reports, educate and inform society, fostering critical thinking and awareness of social, environmental, and political issues. They promote accountability by exposing truths, inspire action, and preserve historical and cultural knowledge. Accessible via digital platforms, they engage diverse audiences but face challenges from misinformation and declining attention spans.

16. Explain cross-promotion with an example. [U] / [CO2]

Cross-promotion is a marketing strategy where two or more entities promote each other's products, services, or content to their respective audiences, enhancing visibility and mutual benefit. In television, it involves promoting one program or channel within another to boost viewership.

Example: A TV network airs a popular reality show and promotes an upcoming drama series during its commercial breaks or as in-show mentions (e.g., a host announcing, "Stay tuned for the premiere of [Drama Series] next week!"). This leverages the reality show's large audience to drive viewership for the new drama, increasing overall channel engagement.

17. Explain the structure of a TV debate. [U] / [CO2]

- Introduction: Host presents topic, participants, and rules.
- Opening Statements: Participants state their positions.
- Main Discussion: Moderated arguments, counterpoints, and questions.
- Audience Interaction (optional): Questions from viewers.
- Closing Statements: Participants summarize views.
- Conclusion: Host recaps and wraps up.

18. List three characteristics of a successful chat show. [K] / [CO2]

1. Engaging and relatable host
2. Interesting and diverse guests
3. Natural, entertaining conversation

19. Identify principles of sound recording applied in post-production. [K] / [CO5]

- Noise Reduction: Remove unwanted sounds.

 Equalization: Balance frequency levels.

 Compression: Even out volume.

 Reverb/Effects: Add depth or mood.

 Mixing: Blend audio tracks.

 Panning: Distribute sound spatially.

 Normalization: Standardize volume.

 Syncing: Align audio with visuals.

 Restoration: Fix distorted audio.

 Mastering: Optimize final audio.

20. State the role of a cameracrew during outdoor productions. [K] / [CO4]

The camera crew captures clear, well-framed visuals, manages lighting and sound, and ensures smooth camera movements during outdoor productions.

21. State the importance of lower thirds in television graphics. [K] / [CO4]

Lower thirds provide key information such as a person's name, title, or location, helping viewers easily understand who is speaking or what is being shown on screen.

22. Recall the purpose of camera blocking in studio production. [K] / [CO6]

The purpose of camera blocking in studio production is to plan and fix camera positions and movements to ensure smooth shots and proper coverage during recording or live broadcast.

[3x10 = 30]

Part C

Essay Type Questions (450 Words)

Answer any 2 questions

Each question carries 15 marks

23.Evaluate the contributions of Doordarshan in the growth of Indian television. [E] / [CO1]

 Infrastructure Development: Pioneered TV broadcasting from 1959, expanded to national satellite network by 1982, reaching 90% of households.

 Educational Impact: Launched programs like Krishi Darshan (1967) and SITE (1975-76) for rural education on farming, health, and literacy.

 Cultural Influence: Iconic shows like Hum Log, Ramayan, and Mahabharat drew millions, fostering shared cultural experiences.

 News and Unity: Professional news since 1965 built trust, promoted national integration post-1976 AIR separation.

 Commercial Foundation: Attracted advertisers, enabled private production, and spurred post-1991 TV boom with 800+ channels.

 Digital Adaptation: Offers DD Free Dish and archives 500,000+ hours, competing with modern platforms like YouTube.

24. Analyse the content of today's TV channels. [An] / [CO2]

Today's TV channels feature a mix of news, entertainment, reality shows, education, and advertisements, often focusing on audience ratings and trends rather than pure information or art.

25. Examine the role of the Editorial Board in ensuring ethical practices in news reporting. [An] / [CO5]

 Sets Ethical Standards: Establishes guidelines for accuracy, fairness, and objectivity in reporting.

 Oversees Content: Reviews stories to ensure compliance with ethical norms and legal regulations.

 Addresses Bias: Monitors and corrects partiality or sensationalism to maintain credibility.

 Handles Complaints: Investigates ethical breaches and public grievances, ensuring accountability.

 Guides Training: Promotes journalist training on ethical practices and editorial integrity.

 Upholds Public Trust: Ensures transparent, balanced reporting to maintain audience confidence.

26. Recall the significance of budgeting and scheduling in avoiding production delays. [K] / [CO6]

Budgeting ensures all expenses are planned and controlled within limits. Scheduling organizes each stage of production, keeping the team on track. Together, they help maintain workflow and meet deadlines effectively.

[15x2 = 30]

****