MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
MGU-UGP (HONOURS) Regular EXAMINATION October 2025
THIRD semester (2024 admission)
PSYCHOLOGICAL WELLNESS- MG3VACPSY200
Duration: 1 Hour 30 Minutes max marks: 50

PART A
MCQ TYPE
ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS
(Each question carries 1 mark)

1. (c) both heredity and environment interact
2. (b) social support
3. (b) Tamas
4. (c) a person is defined by a dominant trait across most areas of life
5. (c) physical, emotional and social aspects
6. (a) inner growth
7. (c) love and belongingness
8. (a) personality integration
9. (b) strong need to be cared for and supported
10. (b) feels superior and expects admiration
11. (c) human beings are inherently good and possess a natural drive toward growth and self-actualization
12. (b) individuals seeing themselves reflected in others experiences
13. (b) how a person interacts with others
14. (b) factor analysis of trait descriptors
15. (d) hostility
16. (d) 4
17. (c) through stories and narrative construction
18. (c) Fredman and Rosenman
19. (b) projective test
20. (b) nonconforming and careless of rules

PART B
SHORT ANSWER TYPE
ANSWER ANY 10 QUESTIONS
(EACH QUESTION CARRIES 3 MARKS)

21. Cluster A- paranoid personality - pervasive distrust and suspicion of others - perception of innocent remarks or non threatening situations as personal insults or attacks - angry or hostile reaction to perceived slights or insults

22. Ability to adjust behaviour or personality characteristics in changing or uncertain situations - problem focused strategies – emotion focused strategies

23. Carl Rogers – person centered theory - real self (one's actual perception of characteristics, traits and abilities that form the basis of the striving for self actualization) - ideal self (the perception of what a person would like to be or thinks he or she should be)

24. Dharana, dhyana and Samadhi are the exercises that help gain control of the mind. Dharana (concentration) – focusing the mind on a single point or object. Dhyana (meditation) - state of deep contemplation. Samadhi (integration) – a state of blissful union with the divine.

25. Neuroticism refers to emotional instability or stability . high score indicate the individual is overanxious , has excessive worries and is moody – has unstable emotions – insecure and temperamental

26. lack empathy – failure to recognize others needs and feelings – grandiose sense of self importance – lack capacity to understand and respond to others mental and affective states.

27. Schizoid personality disorder – limited range of emotional expression – inability to take pleasure in most activities. Schizotypal personality disorder – flat emotions or inappropriate emotional response – indifferent , inappropriate or suspicious response to others.

28. focus on regulating negative emotional reactions to stress – techniques such as meditation, journaling, reframing thoughts can be used – seeking support from others – engaging in activities that promote positive emotions – learning to understand and manage emotions.

29. leadership development –sales training – conflict resolution – personal development – team building – communication training – recruitment and hiring – stress management

30. Descriptive level – focus on what happened – simple recounting of events without deeper questioning. Analytical – explores why something happened – looks at causes consequences and contributing factors.

31. Choose a descriptive name for the problem that captures its essence (e.g.; procrastination monster) – putting off studying for an important exam until the last minute. Chart how this procrastination affects specific emotions, thoughts, behaviours and relationship. Problem conversation '' what do you hope to achieve by doing this".

32. Higher reliability and validity – more accurate and consistent measurements.

33. role play transforms abstract theories into practical lived experiences- people act out scenarios or roles to simulate real life situations – learners don't just read about concepts but enact them which strengthen retention and understanding.