QP CODE: 24900264

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM
FIRST SEMESTER MGU-UGP (HONOURS) REGULAREXAMINATION NOVEMBER 2024
First Semester

Discipline Specific Core Course - MG1DSCVCN100 - ART OF STORYTELLING
(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

Duration: 1.5 Hours Maximum Marks: 50

Remember (K), Understand (U), Apply (A), Analyse (An), Evaluate (E), Create (C), Interest (I), Appreciation (Ap), and Skill (S)

Students should attempt atleast one question from each course outcome to enhance their overalloutcome attainability.

[Learning Domain][CO No(s)]

Part A

Short Answer Questions

Answer any five of the following, Each question carries 2 marks

1. Define verbal narration [K] [1]
- Oral storytelling.
- Describes events or stories using speech.
- Includes tone, emotion, and pace.
- Used in traditions, literature, and media.

2. What is art? [K] [1]
- Human expression and creativity.
- Includes visual, performing, and literary forms.
- Reflects emotions, culture, and ideas.
- Aesthetic or communicative in purpose.

3. Define the Palaeolithic period [K] [2]
- Prehistoric era, "Old Stone Age."
- Marked by stone tool use.
- Hunter-gatherer lifestyle.
- Spanning 2.5 million to 10,000 years ago.

4. What are cave paintings? [K] [2]
- Prehistoric wall art.
- Found in caves and shelters.
- Depict animals, humans, symbols.
- Often used for rituals or storytelling.

5. What are some common themes in sagas? [K] [3]
- Heroic deeds and adventures.
- Family and clan conflicts.
- Mythical and supernatural events.
- Love, honor, and revenge.

6. Define myth in storytelling [K] [4]
- Traditional tales with cultural significance.
- Explains origins, gods, and nature.
- Often symbolic or allegorical.
- Passed orally through generations.

7. Define folklore in relation to myths and legends [U] [5]
- Collective cultural traditions.
- Includes myths, legends, and customs.
- Oral transmission over time.
- Reflects beliefs and values of a community.

(5 × 2 = 10)

Part B

Short Essay Questions

Answer any four in one paragraph each,Each question carries 5 marks

8. Discuss the role of imagination in enhancing a story. [U] [1]

- Creates vivid worlds and unique characters.
- Adds depth and complexity to plots.
- Engages audiences through creative scenarios.
- Evokes emotions and stimulates the senses.
- Introduces diverse perspectives and fresh ideas.
- Helps convey abstract themes symbolically.
- Makes stories more relatable or fantastical.

9. Explain how myths helped early humans explain natural events and the unknown. [U] [1]

- Attributed natural events to gods or spirits.
- Offered explanations for phenomena like storms and eclipses.
- Provided creation stories to give life meaning.
- Reduced fear of the unknown with structured narratives.
- Reinforced moral codes and social norms.
- Fostered community bonds through shared beliefs.

10. Discuss the materials and techniques used in creating cave paintings during the Palaeolithic period. [U] [2]

- Used natural pigments like ochre, charcoal, and clay.
- Mixed pigments with water, fat, or plant sap.
- Applied using brushes, fingers, or hollow bones.
- Techniques included stenciling and shading.
- Painted on smoothed or prepared cave surfaces.
- Firelight illuminated caves during artwork creation.

11. Discuss the relationship between sagas and historical events. [An] [3]

- Blend historical facts with fictional elements.
- Preserve cultural heritage and traditions.
- Highlight societal values and conflicts of the era.
- Offer semi-historical records of battles and migrations.
- Dramatize emotional and moral struggles of leaders.
- Engage audiences while educating about history.

12. Analyze the moral dilemmas faced by the characters in the Ramayana. [An] [4]

- Rama's conflict between love for Sita and duty as a king.
- Sita's struggle to prove her purity and honor.
- Lakshmana’s loyalty versus personal desires.
- Ravana’s ambition versus moral choices.
- Bharata’s dilemma of ruling versus respecting Rama’s rights.
- Themes of sacrifice, dharma, and righteousness.

13. Analyze how modern technology influences traditional storytelling practices. [An] [5]

- Introduces digital platforms for wider reach.
- Enables interactive storytelling through social media.
- Uses tools like animation and virtual reality for immersion.
- Digitally archives traditional stories for preservation.
- AI adapts narratives to audience preferences.
- Balances innovation with preserving cultural authenticity.

(4 × 5 = 20)

Part C

Essay Questions Answer any two of the followingEach question carries 10 marks

14. Analyze the impact of storytelling on education and learning [An] [1]

- Enhances memory retention through engaging narratives.

- Simplifies complex concepts with relatable examples.
- Encourages creativity and imagination in learners.
- Builds empathy by exploring diverse perspectives.
- Develops communication and language skills.
- Strengthens cultural awareness and moral values.
- Improves critical thinking by presenting conflicts and solutions.
- Makes learning enjoyable and less intimidating.
- Provides historical and cultural context in education.
- Facilitates collaborative and interactive learning experiences.

15. Discuss the development of artistic techniques and tools from the Mesolithic to Neolithic periods [U] [2]

- Transition from mobile art to permanent structures like megaliths.
- Introduction of polished stone tools for carving and shaping.
- Use of pottery and clay modeling for functional and decorative purposes.
- Refinement of pigment use for more detailed art.
- Creation of engravings, reliefs, and larger murals.
- Shift from animal depictions to scenes of agriculture and daily life.
- Use of geometric patterns and symbolic motifs.
- Development of more complex weaving and textile techniques.
- Tools became more specialized, improving artistic precision.
- Art began reflecting social organization and rituals.

16. Discuss the role of cave paintings in early human communication and storytelling [An] [2]

- Served as a medium to depict daily life and hunting scenes.
- Expressed religious and ritualistic beliefs.
- Preserved knowledge and traditions across generations.
- Used symbols to convey abstract ideas or warnings.
- Documented interactions with the environment and animals.
- Acted as visual storytelling to entertain or educate.
- Strengthened group identity and cultural bonds.
- Communicated messages in a time without written language.
- Represented artistic expression and human creativity.
- Provided insights into early human cognition and social structure.

17. Cite with examples how epics influence the day-to-day life of common people [E] [3]

- Teach moral values through stories of heroism (e.g., Rama in Ramayana).
- Inspire devotion and spirituality in daily prayers (e.g., Bhagavad Gita from Mahabharata).
- Provide role models for courage and righteousness (e.g., Sita's virtue).
- Serve as guides for family and societal duties.
- Impact cultural festivals and rituals (e.g., Diwali commemorates Rama's return).
- Influence art forms like dance and theater (e.g., Kathakali performances of epics).
- Act as moral reference points in decision-making.
- Foster community identity through shared heritage.
- Promote perseverance and resilience (e.g., Arjuna's struggles).
- Encourage storytelling traditions in families and communities.

(2 × 10 = 20)