Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam-

First Semester MGU-UGP – BSW (Honours) Regular Examination November 2024

Discipline Specific Core Course - MG1DSCSWK100 – Professional Social Work- QP Code: 24900045

Part A Short Answer Questions Answer any five questions / each question carries 2 marks

1	Explain the significance of Hull House in the development of social work in the United States? Hull House, founded by Jane Addams in 1889 in Chicago, was a pioneering settlement house that provided social services, education, and advocacy for immigrants and the poor. It significantly shaped the field of social work by promoting community-based services, fostering social reform, and inspiring the professionalization of social work.	(U) 3) 2 marks
2	Define the term "Client" in the context of social work? In social work, a "client" refers to an individual, family, group, or community seeking or receiving professional assistance, support, or services to address social, emotional, or practical challenges.	(U) 5 2 marks
3	Illustrate the difference between Social Service and Social Work ➢ Social service involves delivering specific aid or programs, such as food assistance, housing, or education, often through government or nonprofit agencies. It addresses immediate needs. ➢ Social work is a professional field that goes beyond providing services. It involves assessing individual or community challenges, developing interventions, and advocating for systemic change to improve overall well-being and social justice. Social work integrates social services but focuses on holistic and long-term solutions.	(U) (6) 2 marks
4.	What is meant by Social Reform? Social reform refers to organized efforts to improve societal conditions by addressing issues like inequality, injustice, and discrimination, aiming to create positive, systemic change.	(U) (2) 2 marks
5.	What is an Alms house and who were its typical residents An almshouse was a facility providing basic care and shelter for the poor, elderly, sick, or disabled, typically supported by charity or public funds. Its residents were often those unable to support themselves.	(U) 4) 2 marks
6.	Discuss the role of "Sarvodaya" in Gandhian social work "Sarvodaya," meaning "welfare of all," was central to Gandhian social work. It emphasized uplifting the entire community through nonviolence, self-reliance, and social justice, advocating for equitable development and the empowerment of marginalized groups.	(K) (4) 2 marks
7.	List two Objectives of KAPS ➢ Promote the professional development of social workers in Kerala. ➢ Advocate for social justice and improve social work standards through training and collaboration.	(K) (1) 2 marks

Part B Short Essay Questions Answer any four questions / each question carries 5 marks

8	What are some key skills required for effective micro-practice in social work? Illustrate with examples ➢ Active Listening:, e.g., listening attentively to a teenager discussing family conflicts. ➢ Empathy:, e.g., showing understanding of a grieving client's emotions. ➢ Communication: e.g., explaining intervention plans to a client. ➢ Problem-Solving:, e.g., helping a homeless individual create a housing plan. ➢ Cultural Competence: Respecting diverse backgrounds, e.g., tailoring support for a client from a different cultural community.	(K)(5) 5 mark
9	What is the role of social worker in correctional institutions? ➢ Counseling and Support: ➢ Assessment and Case Management ➢ Rehabilitation and Skill Development ➢ Advocacy and Legal Support ➢ Reentry and Reintegration ➢ Crisis Intervention.	(U) (5 5 mark

10	How does social work contribute to promoting human rights? i) Advocacy for Social Justice ii) Empowerment of Vulnerable Populations iii) Policy Advocacy and Reform iv) Direct Support and Intervention v) Promoting Inclusive Practices vi) Education and Awareness vii) Addressing Systemic Inequality viii) Conflict Resolution and Peace building ix) Global Collaboration x) Ethical Practice	(A) (1) 5 mark
11	Explain the significance of the Charity Organization Society movement in the development of social work in the USA during the late 19th century? a) Professionalization of Social Work b) Scientific Approach to Social Work c) Centralized Relief Efforts d) Focus on Moral and Individual Reform e) Role of Friendly Visitors f) Creation of Organized Social Service Networks g) Influence on Social Work Education h) Critique of Systemic Inequalities i) Foundation for Modern Social Welfare Policies j) Evolution of Ethical Practice	(U) 4 5 marks
12	Explain the role of social reformers during the Mughal Period in India. How did their contribution influences the evolution of social work? ➢ During the Mughal period in India, social reformers played a crucial role in addressing societal issues like caste discrimination, gender inequality, and religious intolerance. ➢ Reformers like Akbar promoted policies of religious tolerance and social justice ➢ Guru Nanak and Swami Dayananda Saraswati, emphasized equality, education, and the abolition of practices like untouchability. ➢ Their contributions laid the groundwork for social change by advocating for the rights of marginalized groups and encouraging the development of more inclusive social systems. ➢ This influence shaped the evolution of social work in India by promoting values of equality, justice, and social welfare, which later became central principles in social work practice.	(U) 3 5 marks
13	Analyze the role of voluntary services in facilitating social development? 1. Community Empowerment 2. Filling Gaps in Services 3. Capacity Building 4. Advocacy for Social Justice 5. Promoting Inclusivity 6. Strengthening Civil Society 7. Disaster Relief and Crisis Management 8. Cost-Effective Solutions 9. Fostering Innovation 10. Global and Local Impact	(U) 2 5 marks
14	Describe the importance of networking and collaboration facilitated by social work associations. a) Professional Development b) Knowledge Sharing c) Advocacy and Policy Influence d) Building Support Systems e) Interdisciplinary Collaboration f) Global and Local Impact g) Ethical and Professional Standards	(U) 6

Part C Essay Questions Answer any two questions / each question carries 10 marks

15	Discuss the role of social workers in addressing issues of poverty, inequality and discrimination. How do they advocate for marginalized population and work towards systemic change? Addressing Poverty, Inequality, and Discrimination 1. Direct Support to Individuals and Families: a) Needs Assessment b) Resource Connection c) Empowerment 2. Advocating for Fair Treatment: a) Anti-Discrimination Efforts b) Cultural Competence 3. Community Development: a) Grassroots Initiatives b) Education and Awareness Advocating for Marginalized Populations 1. Policy Advocacy: 2. Organizational and Institutional Change: 3. Legal Advocacy: Working Towards Systemic Change 1. Research and Data Collection:- to identify systemic barriers and gather data to support policy changes and raise awareness and drive evidence-based solutions. 2. Coalition Building: amplify the voices of marginalized populations. 3. Education and Training: 4. Challenging Power Structures:	(An) (5) 10 mark
16	Compare and contrast the similarities and dissimilarities related to the basic concepts of social work? In social work, several basic concepts guide the practice, including social justice, human rights, empowerment, and confidentiality. While these concepts share common goals of promoting well-being and dignity, they differ in focus and application. Similarities: 1. Focus on Individuals and Communities:. 2. Commitment to Equality and Dignity 3. Holistic Approach. Dissimilarities: 1. Social Justice vs. Human Rights: ○ Social justice focuses on creating a fair society by addressing inequality, discrimination, and access to resources, often requiring systemic change. ○ Human rights refer to the fundamental freedoms and protections that every person is entitled to, such as freedom from oppression and the right to basic needs like food, shelter, and education. 2. Empowerment vs. Confidentiality: ○ Empowerment involves enabling individuals and communities to gain control over their lives and make informed decisions to improve their circumstances, often through education and skill-building. ○ Confidentiality ensures that sensitive information shared by clients remains private, fostering trust in the social worker-client relationship and safeguarding the client's rights and privacy. 3. Application: ○ Social justice and human rights have a broader societal focus, often involving advocacy and policy change at the macro level. ○ Empowerment is more client-centered, focusing on micro-level interventions, while confidentiality ensures the ethical practice of social work at the individual level.	(A) (6) 10 mark
17	Analyze the different approaches of Ela Bhat and Medha Patkar in advocating for social justice. What strategies did each use to address the issues faced by women and marginalized communities? Ela Bhatt: Ela Bhatt is the founder of SEWA (Self-Employed Women's Association), an organization dedicated to empowering self-employed women in the informal sector, particularly those facing economic and social marginalization. Approach and Strategies:	(U) 4 10 mark

	1. Economic Empowerment: 2. Cooperative Model: 3. Policy Advocacy: 4. Leadership and Capacity Building Medha Patkar: Medha Patkar is a renowned activist and the founder of the Narmada Bachao Andolan (NBA), a movement primarily focused on protesting the construction of large dams on the Narmada River, which displaced thousands of tribal and rural communities. Approach and Strategies: 1. Mass Mobilization and Grassroots Activism. 2. Environmental Justice and Human Rights: 3. Legal Advocacy 4. Inclusivity and Representation Comparison of Their Approaches: • Focus Areas: Bhatt's work primarily focused on economic empowerment and organizing self-employed women in the informal sector, whereas Patkar's focus was on the displacement and rights of marginalized communities, particularly indigenous groups and women affected by large-scale development projects. • Methods: Bhatt used cooperative models and policy advocacy to bring about change, emphasizing economic independence and social security for women. In contrast, Patkar employed grassroots mobilization, direct action, and legal interventions to challenge unjust development practices and fight for the rights of displaced communities. • Empowerment of Women: Both Bhatt and Patkar emphasized women's empowerment, but Bhatt's approach was more centered on economic and organizational empowerment, while Patkar focused on giving women a voice in environmental and social justice struggles, ensuring their active participation in leadership roles.
18	Examine the Role of Social Reformers in Advancing Equality in Kerala Key Contributions of Social Reformers: I. Sree Narayana Guru (1856-1928) a) Caste Equality b) Education c) Spiritual and Social Reform II. Poykayil Appachan (1879-1939) a) Dalit Rights b) Religious Reform c) Literature and Music III.Ayyankali (1863-1941) a) Social Justice b) Education c) Labor Rights. IVKavarikulam Kandan Kumaran (1863-1912) a) Social Activism b) Community Leader. V. Vagbhatananda (1885-1939) a) Philosophy and Education b) Atmavidya Sangham. VI. Sugathakumari (1934-2020) a) Literature and Activism b) Women's Rights c) Environmental Conservation VII. Mayilamma (1940-2007) a) Environmental Activism b) Community Mobilization. VIII C.K. Janu (b. 1970) a) Adivasi Rights. b) Land Rights Movement c) Political Leadership IX Daya Bai (b. 1940) a) Tribal Rights. b) Grassroots Activism c)Health and Education:	(U) 3 10 mark