PART C
ESSAY
Answer any 2 questions. Each question carries 15 marks

20. Democracy as the essential, pluralistic framework for managing India's immense diversity; compares the nation to a "thali" that celebrates diverse cultures rather than monolithic identity; democratic structure empowers marginalized groups and fosters institutional resilience; rooted in a consensus that accommodates, rather than eliminates difference. (U)/(CO1)

21. Realities of a middle-class Indian family by presenting death not as a dramatic event, but as a mundane and practical experience; focuses on the material and social remnants of a father's life—debts, household issues, and annual rituals—rather than emotional grief. (An)/(CO2)

22. Motherhood is deeply tied to loss; each woman experiences suffering through violence, separation, or emotional trauma.; bound together by societal stigma and unconventional mothering; illustrates that motherhood involves both nurturing and confronting of inevitable loss. (U)/(CO3)

23. The characters witness a brutal crime outside but remain passive; their moral hesitation mirrors the tendencies of real-life individuals who avoid responsibility in difficult situations; encourages the audience to reflect on their own inaction and question whether they too would remain silent in the face of injustice. (K)/(CO4)
